

Vaneza Nayeli Plumas

Vaneza has been dancing with Cynergy Dance Company for 15 years. Throughout her tenure and years of training, her love and passion for dance has grown and progressed in all styles and at all levels. She has received technical training in Ballet, Pointe, Jazz, Hip-Hop, Lyrical, Contemporary and Folklorico Dance.

Vaneza has also competed in numerous solo and group ensembles at regional and national dance competitions over the last 12 years where she receive numerous prestigious awards. Vaneza has also had the honor of training with many talented industry choreographers at regional dance workshops and conventions to include Jump, Showstopper and 24-7.

In 2017-2018, Vaneza was elected "Lt. Officer" for the MacArthur High School Brahmadora Dance Team where she also trained with various choreographers and received many showmanship and dance awards at her Officer Camps and Team Summer Camps. She will be graduating with honors from MacArthur High School in 2020. She plans to further her love of dance and art education at either Texas Christian University or Texas Tech University.

Vaneza is a highly energetic and passionate dancer who inspires and challenges her students and soloists to do their best always. Over the last three years, she has been given the opportunity to work closely with our many of our recreational and competitive dancers. She has choreographed competition solo and group routines and has also assisted with leading and directing our CDSA Pom Dance Ensemble. She enjoys working with her students and watching them grow and advance in their technique and excel in their performances.
