

Jaclyn Sanchez

Jaclyn is a former member of the varsity dance team at East Central High School, where she competed in Show Makers of America and Champion Dance Competitions as a soloist. She received a Bachelor of Science degree in Kinesiology, Exercise Science with a minor in Biology at Texas A&M University at San Antonio. Jaclyn has trained in contemporary and hip hop dance under the instruction of choreographers at Millennium Dance Complex in North Hollywood, CA., and the Tremaine Dance Convention in Las Vegas, NV. Jaclyn has performed with Spirit of America Dance Team in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York. She is also the former choreographer for singer/song writer Paula DeAnda completing performance sets for the SA Living Show, music video "Brand New", and concert performance in Santa Maria, CA.

Jaclyn joined Cynergy Dance in 2016 as one of the lead dance instructors and choreographers of the Cynergy Dance Savvy Artistry Competitive Dance Team. Jaclyn also received a distinguished "Choreography Award" for her dance groups performance to "Hallelujah" at the 2017 Rainbow National Dance Competition. Her soloist's dance and choreography also received 1st Overall at the 2017 Showstopper Regional Dance Competition. Jaclyn continues to teach and assist with dance choreography at Cynergy while she completes her Master Degree.