My name is Kevin Brewster. My dance name is Bboy KidRaw. I am from nXg Dance Crew located in San Antonio, Texas. Our crew's message is to inspire the youth and create innovative ways to build up our community. I have whole heartedly embodied this ideology. I have traveled to different cities across Texas competing, teaching, and learning. I have collaborated with artist ranging from gospel singers to graphic designers. I have choreographed several pieces for events at Traders Village, Debuts, and dance recitals. I strive to bring out the best in every student that I teach. Overall I want to make sure that the youth understand the importance of unity, peace, and confidence that dance brings.
