

Kaylee Madison Cates

Kaylee is a native of San Antonio and has been dancing since the age of 5. She attends North East School of the Arts (NESA) where she trains in Ballet, Tap, Contemporary, and Jazz. Currently she is a member of Countdown Dance Company's adult Hip Hop team, who trains and competes at World of Dance Hip Hop Competition.

Kaylee has competed in many regional and national dance competitions. Kaylee attended numerous dance conventions and masterclasses to include Builtabeast, Misfits, Monsters, and Streetz. She continues to travel to Los Angeles to train in some of the top studios with some of the top choreographer's in today's Hip Hop Industry.

Kaylee's love and passion for Hip Hop is to inspire, teach and spread the art of Hip Hop to young dancers. She is a believer that the future can always be better than the present and she has the power to make it so.
