

Jocelyn Bowman

Jocelyn began her ballet training at the Evergreen City Ballet in Auburn, WA under the direction of Wade Walthall, with whom she worked closely with for 8 years. Throughout those years she attended summer intensives at Ballet Austin and Houston Ballet. Upon graduating high school, she danced as a Richmond Ballet trainee in 2007 and the following year danced with ECB's professional company under the direction of Kevin Kaiser. In 2009 she went on to dance with Theatre Ballet at Brigham Young University in Provo, UT, where she took many courses in dance and photography, which culminated in receiving her BFA in Photography. Most recently Jocelyn has performed with the Charlottesville Ballet in Virginia.

Jocelyn began teaching ballet in 2012 at Danceworx in New Delhi, India. The following year Jocelyn spent two years as the Ballet Director at Charisma Dance Studio in Utah and staged the full-length ballets, "The Nutcracker" and "Swan Lake" along with excerpts from Giselle and Paquita. Jocelyn also had the opportunity to teach beginning ballet courses to college students at BYU. She then followed her husband to Virginia in 2016 so he could attend medical school and taught at several dance studios in Lynchburg, VA. Jocelyn recently received her 200 hr yoga teacher certification and has a 1 year old daughter. She is very excited to be in San Antonio and for the opportunity to teach ballet at Cynergy Dance!
